

	Female	Female or Male	Male
Wg	52-54	55-63	64-66
Crown	Grayish to grayish olive, contrasting moderately with the back		Gray, contrasting markedly with brightish green back
Concealed crown patch	Indistinctly-defined, moderately small (2-10 mm), and pale rufous See Fig. 281, p516.		Well-defined, large (9-16 mm), dark rufous, rufous of individual feathers extending >5 mm from the base See Fig. 281, p516 and Fig. 260, p450.
Chin and throat	Buffy whitish to white		Chin, throat, breast & flanks uniformly bright yellow
Back	Olive		Brightish green
Breast & flanks	Pale buffy yellow		Chin, throat, breast & flanks uniformly bright yellow

Notes:

1. Easiest to age before sexing.
2. Intermediates difficult to micro-age or sex.